

SONOMA HILLS FARM

ARRIVAL INFORMATION

SONOMA HILLS FARM IS A PREMIUM CRAFT CANNABIS FARM AND ORGANIC CULINARY GARDEN NESTLED ON 60-ACRES IN SONOMA VALLEY'S PETALUMA GAP APPELLATION, ONE OF THE NATION'S PREMIER WINE TERROIRS.

WELCOME

Managed by former French Laundry culinary gardener, Aaron Keefer, Sonoma Hills Farm is the first licensed cannabis farm in Wine Country and the world's first to be certified like Organic by the CCOF.

Our team works with dozens of Chefs to grow heirloom vegetables, cut flowers, and heritage mangalitsa pig and wagyu beef to pair with the farm's award winning cannabis strains.

Sonoma Hills Farm is not open to the public.

Please consider taking a screen shot of the Map and Directions page as cellular coverage can be limited near the farm.

DISCLAIMER:

*Due to regulations and legal limitations, guests will not be visiting a licensed cannabis marijuana grow or interacting with cannabis marijuana. Guests instead have access to a neighboring private estate, vegetable garden and cannabis hemp farm. These plants look and smell identical to the cannabis marijuana plants, but contain less than 1% THC and are federally legal. In addition guests will have access to all of the other produce, flowers, and animals on the property.

ARRIVAL INFORMATION

Please arrive at 250 Purvine Road, Petaluma. Just 10 minutes outside of downtown Petaluma towards Bodega Bay. Purvine Road is a farm road located between Middle Two Rock and Spring Hill Road.

When you arrive, please park in the parking lot behind the white house and head to the white "Stoned Barn" to check-in.

As part of California Cannabis state compliance rules, all visitors must use the sign in system and sign a waiver and NDA. Advanced copies available for review.
